“Winning an IABC Student Gold Quill Award was quite literally a game changer for me. When starting your career one of the hardest things to do is establish credibility, and having an IABC Student Gold Quill Award is just that—a stamp of approval from an internationally recognized body saying, ‘Hey, this guy’s not just your run-of-the-mill junior copywriter, this guy has potential.’ Now when I send in my résumé I’m not just in the pile, I sit at the top.”
